Lost in WalMart

I walked into one of the _____ Adjective _____ Noun a few days ago and the first thing I heard was that loud _____ Interjection voiced girl that always is telling the so called, "Good", deals over the intercom, and it brought back a bad, but on the other hand a good memory of when I was five.

When I was five my mom _____ Verb - Base Form me to a _____ Adjective _____ Noun for the first time. We were shopping and I asked if we could go look at the toys and she said yes, so I was looking at the teeny _____ Adjective telly tubby action figures when she said that she was going shopping still so as a five year old that she was just _____ Verb - Base Form down the aisle. I was so into those action figures that by the time I looked up to see that she wasn't there I didn't know that she was across the store, so I _____ Adverb started to _____ Verb - Base Form around the store looking for her then I found her _____ Adverb in the electronics section and she got me a game for my _____ Noun. We then walked to the checkout line and then went home.
