Snow Day

Snow Day

It was my third grade year and I woke up and saw a lot of _____ Noun _____ on the ground! It looked like a big _____ Adjective _____ blanket and the trees looked like they were painted _____ Adjective _____. I _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ downstairs to see if we were canceled but we were only a delay. So we decided to _____ Verb - Base Form _____ some games. We knew we would be disappointed if we checked so we decided not to look to see if there were any updates on school. We had a lot of fun together. I think the best part was when we realized that we got canceled. It was noon and my sister said we were missing school! Then we went to get our dad and he said " _____ Interjection _____ yeah I forgot to tell you there's no school!" It was the _____ Adjective _____ surprise ever! We went back to play more games.

Since it snowed we went outside to play with the snow. It was really _____ Adverb _____. outside. We made a lot of _____ Noun _____. Only one was the best, the rest were lopsided. After we played outside we came back in to have lunch. After that we watched a bunch of movies! I think it was around _____ Noun _____ time so we were watching _____ Noun _____ movies. Then we played some board games. I think I learned to _____ Adverb _____ check to see if school is canceled. Because you never know what could happen.
