The Fishing Trip

It was _____ Adjective summer day, the wind was blowing slightly, chickens were all over the place picking worms out of the ground, so it was a perfect day to go fishing. My sister Izzie, my brother Ephraim, and my dad and I went down to the Beaver Creek Bridge. When we got there we went under the bridge to find the best spot possible. We got the worms out of the _____ Noun and hooked them onto our fishing poles, which were made out of _____ Noun - Plural and _____ Noun.

Then we _____ Adverb _____ Verb - Past Tense our bait out into the very shallow water and waited. My little sister Izzie was the first person to catch a fish, meanwhile no one else had. The flow of the fish had started so eventually everyone caught a fish except for me. My brother and I moved to the other side. I guess I was at the right place at the right time because _____ Interjection I caught a _____ Adjective fish! We were all fishing and our dog Loki came down to the creek. He smelled the fish and _____ Verb - Past Tense to where they were and ate them whole.

After that everyone was tired of mud, smelly water and the sunlight we _____ Adverb _____ Verb - Base Form home with fishing poles, Loki, and no fish. To our surprise we came home to a _____ Adjective lunch of sandwiches, chips, and lemonade. I learned that fishing isn't boring and I can't wait to do it again.
