The Store

Our Noun reached a quick halt as a Adjective car came flying by in the parking lot. My dad said " Interjection !" We searched for a spot and found one right next to a Adjective truck. We got out and Verb - Past Tense because it was cold, to the Adjective doors of the Adjective store of Hy-Vee, my dad ended up Adverb slipping and fell on the ground.

Then we looked for some Adjective fruit and something good for supper. This Adjective guy Verb - Past Tense us and asked if we lived in the area and have seen a Noun around town. He was Adjective but dressed very different with these weird Noun on. We then found something good to eat for supper. After that we Verb - Past Tense Adverb to the front, payed and took it home.

When we got home my mom was ready to cook. The dog got up from sleeping and begged Adverb for some food. When my mom was done cooking the Noun and Noun she put it on a plate for everyone to put in a tortilla.

Everyone rushed up stairs Adverb waiting for their turn to get some food. My dad tripped on the last Noun and fell. Watch where you step and your speed so you don't hurt yourself or someone else.
