The day at the amusement park

I remember getting _____(adverb) from my unpleasant car ride that made my neck feel like I had _____(verb) on rock.I saw the _____(adjective) roller coasters and assortment of rides . We drove through the parking lot and found cars,cars and more cars. It didn't look like there was an( interjection) open parking spot in sight. After what felt like eternity of driving through aisles and aisles of parked _____(noun(plural)) we finally found a spot. When we got inside the park my family and I were all wondering which ride to go on first.

So what had happened was, that my brother,sister and me went on the _____(adjective)roller coaster there was in the park. The name of it was the _____(proper noun) _____(proper noun) which didn't make it sound like some kids ride. When we got through waiting my brother and sister went in a car of their own . There wasn't another spot so I waited till next ride when the carts came back _____(adverb) I went in car of my own. Then there was sudden jolt we were slowly _____(verb-ing) to the top.

When I got to the top I could see miles and miles of farmland. Then all of that went away then we _____(verb) like a bullet. We moved at what seemed like record speeds. My heart felt like it was gonna beat out of my chest, but _____(interjection) an adrenaline rush. Then we went in a pitch _____(adjective) _____(noun), then went through twisting and turning. At one point I was parallel with the ground.

But through the whole ride I _____(verb-past tense) on to the bar against me for dear life.

Finally we slowed down. Then our cart came to a stop the side doors swung open. I got out stumbling a little bit because my head was still spinning. I saw my brother and sister waiting for me at the entrance of the park. I went to talk to them and they decided that it was time for another ride.
