My Day at Atlantis

As we _____ Verb - Past Tense we saw the cruise ship, it was ginormous! I told my dad, " _____ interiection, this ship is huge!" It was the biggest ship I have ever seen. Later that week we stopped at an island, where the best water park I've ever been to is, Atlantis. To get to _____ Proper Noun, we had to take a _____ Adjective - _____ Comparative boat. While we were on our way to the water park, the instructor on the boat was telling us how there was quite a few _____ Adjective people who owned houses right on the ocean and we were literally _____ Verb - Present Tense right past some of them.

Once we arrived at Atlantis, we went on a ton of water slides and most of them were pretty fun. My favorite thing at Atlantis was the lazy river, because it wasn't like an actual lazy river. It had water _____ Verb - Present _____ Tense in from the sides and _____ Adverb! This lazy _____ Noun wasn't actual lazy, it was the best lazy river I had ever been in.

When we were finally done at the _____ Pronoun we had to take a _____ Adverb back across the island, because the boats only went back and forth until 5 O'clock, it was quite the experience, because some of the places we were driving past didn't look very friendly.

While I was in the Bahamas I learned that there is plenty to do. Also that some people never get to go to the Bahamas so I am pretty lucky to get to experience that at such a young age. So that was my day at the _____ Adjective - Superlative water park ever, Atlantis.
