The Move

It was a _____ Adjective _____ Adjective, Saturday morning and I had just woken up. It was the the day I was going to leave my home town. First, I knew that I had to say my goodbyes, I didn't think it would be hard but is was very _____ Adjective. I think settling in was a cool experience.

Saying goodbye, I didn't think it would hard but there were some _____ Verb - Past Tense, some _____ Verb - _____ Past Tense, and some awkward _____ Verb - Base Form. There were some big long hugs, and some small short hugs.

Once we left, I think that I was the only one our whole family that actually liked the drive to Iowa. I thought it was cool because there was so many great things to see, it was just so amazing.

However, settling _____ Adverb was very interesting experience to me because I didn't make _____ Noun - _____ Plural the first couple of days in _____ Proper Noun. I managed to keep to myself. When I _____ Adverb to play sports every one liked me because I was really good! Then _____ Noun - Plural got to know me. Now I think I have too many friends!

Now I know what life is about. It's about being patient and letting fate take its place. My life is affected by this event because when I first moved here I thought that I would be a nothing. But now I'm a something and I have great friends, and amazing family, and just an _____ interjection life!
