My trip to Canada 2014

I remember waking up at 6 AM and _____ Verb - Base Form up to the farm and packed my gear into the boat then my _____ Noun, _____ Noun and I set off for International Falls Minnesota. We went straight up the middle of Minnesota it took 6 hours to get to International Falls then we stayed the night.

Hector, _____ Proper Noun and Craig (some of my dad's friend's) showed up at 2:30 in the morning and then we all _____ Verb - Base Form at the hotel and then took off to get in line to wait at the Canadian border it took almost thirty minutes to get into Canada and then it was a two hour _____ Verb - Base Form to Sioux Narrows. We went to the bait shop in Sioux Narrows and got our Minnows, Leeches and fishing licences and then left, t of the truck and we packed our stuff in the boat and it took ten minutes to get to the lodge then we unloaded and I went fishing off the dock then went to bed. The next morning we went out on the boat to Bass bay and caught in between 20 and 30 Walleye and 50 and 60 Yellow Perch and 2 Northern Pike.

Then the next day we went to Grassy bay which is on the opposite end of the lake and in 2 hours we caught 10 northern pike and one walleye. We went to Grassy bay and fished the rest of the day there and we picked up one bass and a _____ Adjective of Yellow Perch and Walleye.

The next day we tried to pick up some more Northern because that was the only fish we were low on the rest we were almost full on so we went out and didn't catch much for fish but it wasn't that _____ Adjective because most of them were really _____ interjection size I caught a 30 inch Northern Pike then we went in for the day.

The last day was the _____ Adjective because we started out fishing Walleye then we went trolling for Northern in the back end of the lake where nobody really fishes and caught northern then right off the island I hooked on to my 37 and a half inch Northern Pike. I had to put it back because there were new laws in place for that year.

Then we went to the cabin and went to bed and then the next morning we left to come home it took us eight hours to get from there to home.
