

Two Prisoners

1. Adjective

2. Verb - Past Participle

3. Noun

Two Prisoners

Two Prisoners

?by Raymond Souster

Looking Adjective, looking Verb - Past Participle,

?looking Noun,

?looking at nothing at all.

two young boys

?handcuffed to detectives,?

walking stiffly from a court room

?on the second floor of City Hall.

"Those punks are going back?to the Don where they belong..."

?a court attendant.

Some of us should be made

?to go along with them.

