A walk through the city.

It was 10 AM and you were _____ Verb - Present ends in ING through the hood in the _____ Adjective part of town.

Without realising the first ten minutes of your _____ Verb - Base Form, you had forgotten your _____ Noun again. This would be a _____ Adjective problem because you'd needed the space for your _____ Verb - Present _____ ends in ING accessories. You were looking around _____ Adjective ending in -ly to see if it would be awkward to suddenly turn around. Despite the _____ Adjective man staring at you from his _____ Transportation device, you decide to just head back home. When you enter the door, you see your abandoned _____ Noun in the hallway. You had forgotten to bring it to _____ Adjective _____ relative so he can _____ Verb - Base Form it.

You grab what you came for and decide to make the delivery another day. As you passed through _____ disease avenue, you saw the sun was casting a _____ emotion beam over the street. It perfectly lit an entrance into an alley. The alley looked very _____ Adjective, and you decided to go for it and see where it leads. Your mom always said that _____ Noun - Plural are going to _____ Verb - Base Form, so taking that in mind you proceed. The windows on the two parallel walls are dusty, and it looks like these two buildings were

_____ A building. You see some pallets filled with _____ Noun - Plural. This must've been a supplier who went out of business. As you glance through these windows, you're realising something is moving. You're hearing a _____ Adjective sound coming from the door behind the window. You decide to duck and lock your gaze at a _____ Noun on the floor. You hear a familiar voice. It is slowly coming to you. It's making you feel _____ emotion when you realise who it is. You're hearing _____ Politician talking about some sort of _____ Noun. You decide to peek through the window, and see them full blown _____ Verb - Present ends in ING

_____ Noun _____. You can't believe what you just saw, you feel like _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____. You run away from the alley and you don't know what to do with this information. As you get back to the streets, you hear footsteps in the alley. You decide to _____ Verb - Base Form _____ home. You _____ Verb - Base Form _____ the door closed behind you and let out a sigh of _____ emotion _____. You go to the bathroom to splash some water over your _____ bodypart _____. As you look in the mirror you decide to get dressy and call up a friend for a dinner to forget this event. You decide to wear your favourite _____ piece of clothing _____ and put some _____ personal hygiene product _____ on your _____ bodypart _____ to finish it off. Can this evening get any more _____ Adjective _____ ?
