Holes Ch. 1

There is no Noun at Camp Adjective Noun. There once was a very large Noun here, the largest Noun in Location. That was over a Number years ago. Now it is just a Adjective, Adjective Noun.

There used to be a town of Green Lake as well. The town Verb - Past Tense and Verb - Past Tense up along with the lake, and the people who lived there.

During the summer the daytime temperature hovers around Number degrees in the shade--if you can find any shade. There's not much shade in a Adjective Adjective Noun.

The only Noun - Plural are two Adjective Noun - Plural on the eastern edge of the "lake." A Noun is stretched between the two Noun - Plural, and a log cabin stands behind that.

The campers are forbidden to Verb - Base Form in the Noun. It belongs to the First Name of a Person. The First Name of a Person owns the Noun.

Out on the Noun, Animal (plural) and Animal (plural) find shade under rocks and in the holes dug by the campers.
