This year when I first walked into this class, I set a Noun for myself; It was to Verb my English and History class. I set this goal because i have always Verb - Past Participle those classes. But I got Adjective and I gave up. I regret not doing my Noun and studying for my Noun because now I have to go to summer Noun. Overall I think this year was Noun and educational .

This year I think I've learned a lot. I learned about Greek gods and some Noun - Plural. I also learned that you should Verb your stuff more from reading "Night." To Verb someone sincerely is also something I learned from reading "Romeo and Juliet."
