The Crowns Pre-show Rituals

The Cardboard Crowns like to think they put on a somewhat show. Needless to say this doesn't happen without a little bit of grease, and a lot of preshow rituals. Typically, before every show, Matt can be seen
He says this keeps his blood flowing, as well as keeping his focus on the tast at hand:
Frank, being the energetic little that he is, usually goes for a more Adjective kind of warm-up. You can usually find him running laps around the, or seeing if he can beat his record for most Joel will usually stretch his Part of Body to keep himself nimble on stage. He always says, "if your Part of Body Plural aren't warmed up, you're bound to choke, and the crowd will shout Expression
!!!" We're not entirely sure what our new drummer Dave does before shows, but we're told he sticks Noun - Plural in his ears to protect his hearing, and eats a Food to keep his energy up. What a bunch of
