Joe, Meet Krista

I remember when Krista and Joe first met. It was freshman year at WSU. Krista's _____ Type of Housing , Olympia Ave, was hosting a(n) _____ Event. Krista invited us to attend, and of course we said, " _____ Exclamation!" I knew Joe from _____ Location, and Krista from _____ Location. Joe also lived in Olympia Ave, but hadn't yet _____ Verb-ed Krista. Naturally, this had to change - two of the _____ Adjective-est _____ people in the world hadn't met? They _____ Verb-ed in the same dorm, and would have really _____ Adjective babies if things worked out.... Anyways, at the _____ Event, it was the awkward everyone standing in a circle, what do we do with our _____ Plural Noun?! moment, when I think I might have _____ Verb-ed Joe towards Krista - making things potentially more _____ Adjective, but hey, we can all laugh about it now that everything worked out, right? And, can I be probably not the first, definitely not the last to say that I am beyond the moon and stars happy for Krista and Joe, that they found each other, fell in _____ Noun, and will be _____ Verb-ing together for years to come.
