The Westing Estate

The _____ Adjective and fun day

This is August 4th. I, Turtle faced with the many hardships today. When I made a bet with Doug Hoo, 1 min. $2, I accepted it and I walked to the foreboding and harrowing Westing house. I came to the house looking at it in fright. I opened the big french doors. It was as if the doors to the house was like a giant staring up at me trying to eat me. One step by one step I significantly walked the slowest I can. I walked up the driveway and into the house.

The only thing I was thinking of was 1 min. $2. Unfortunately, it was frightening! There were screams echoing inside the Westing house like a bouncing ball threw at a small house. Also, it was very nerve racking, but guess what, I achieved a 24 dollars for the bet I did with Doug Hoo, I earned a lot of money. I was glad to be out of the Westing House.
