To My Groomsmen

November 14th, 2015 will be an Adjective day in my life because Stephanie and I have chosen that Noun to get married! The ceremony and Noun are going to be at The Redmoor, which is an Adjective old Noun in Mt. Lookout. Since it's such a big Noun for me I definitely want to Verb it with my long-time friends, Noun - Plural, and basically the Noun Noun - Plural I know. That is why I am Adjective to Verb you to be one of my groomsmen! So what do you say, are you Adjective to put on suspenders and a Noun and join my wedding Noun?
