Where the Side Walk Ends

There is a Noun where the Noun Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present

And before the Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present begins,

And there the Adjective Coordinating conjunction Adjective and Coordinating conjunction,

And there the sun burns crimson bright,

And there the moon-bird rests from his flight

To cool in the peppermint wind.

Let us leave this place where the smoke blows black

And the dark street winds and bends.

Past the pits where the asphalt flowers grow

We shall walk with a walk that is measured and slow,

And watch where the chalk-white arrows go

To the place where the sidewalk ends.

Yes we'll walk with a walk that is measured and slow,

And we'll go where the chalk-white arrows go,

For the children, they mark, and the children, they know

The place where the sidewalk ends.
