

To Town and Home Again

1. Adjective
2. Verb - Past Tense
3. Noun - Plural
4. Noun
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Noun
9. Adjective
10. Adjective
11. Verb - Past Tense
12. Noun
13. Verb - Past Tense
14. Adjective
15. Preposition Or Subordinating Conjunction

To Town and Home Again

A Adjective boy begin his journey. He Verb - Past Tense his goat which he intended to sell, and a bag of Noun - Plural to eat on his way. The boy lived on a Noun and climbed down it rather quick with his goat in Noun. Then he waded through a Noun and made his way to the Noun. Now it was half past Noun.

First he would sell his goat to the fisherman who needed a good goat.

"Good afternoon", the 20-year-old fisherman still in training smiled. Now the boy was Adjective and knew if he wanted a good price he would have to act Adjective.

"Mighty fine weather" the boy named Verb - Past Tense replied to the fisherman, who began to inspect the goat.

"How about an iota of fish as trade for this fine goat of yours?" said the fisherman. The boy did not know how much an iota was and thought that iota was the ninth letter in the Greek alphabet an figured it must be nine.

Which was a fair Noun.

"You have a deal." the boy Verb - Past Tense said. The fisherman grabbed the goat and handed him a sack of ten fish. Which the counted and said, "This is more than we agreed." He was a Adjective boy.

"No, this is an iota of fish." the fisherman said.

"Iota is the ninth letter." the boy declared.

"Oh. let me teach you where you went wrong." the fisherman told the boy what I will tell you.

Then the young boy walk Preposition or subordinating conjunction with math in his head and fish in his hand.

