Mad Libs by Shakespeare

Let me not to the _____Noun_____ of true minds

Admit _____Noun_____. _____Noun_____ is not love

Which alters when it alteration finds,

Or bends with the _____Adverb_____ to remove:

O no; it is an ever-fixed mark,

That looks on _____Adverb_____, and is never shaken;

It is the _____Proper Noun_____ to every wandering bark,

Whose worth's unknown, although his height be taken.

Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks

Within his bending sickle's compass come;

Love alters not with his brief hours and weeks,

But bears it out even to the edge of doom.

If this be error and upon me proved,

I never writ, nor no man ever loved.
