Jerry's Birthday

Today is a big day for Jerry! All of his Noun - Plural are coming together to Verb his Noun with Noun. The last time Jerry was at Noun, there was bottomless Noun - Plural, and he enjoyed many. So many, that he was slightly Verb - Past Participle, and began Verb - Present Tense compliments out of the Noun. "I like your Adjective Noun!" and "That is a Adjective Noun style on you!" were some of them. We can only imagine what kind of Noun - Plural Jerry will Verb this time. "That is a Adjective summer Noun you have on!" or perhaps "Your Noun and Noun bring Noun to everyone you meet!" As long as Jerry isn't Verb - Present Tense, and he has a Adjective time with Noun - Plural, then his birthday is a Noun.
