Good Morning

Chad,

I wanted to reach out to your company due to the fact that your excellent reputation isn't being seen by our members. The reason our members are paying for an Angie's List membership is to have access to your reviews and reputation. The more your reviews are seen the more likely that our members will pick up the phone to hire your company. Below is an example of the type of review that compels other members to look to you for your services.

Our members requested to hire in the Painting Interior/Exterior/Siding categories 211 different times in the past 30 days. Your reviews were seen _____Number_____ times. We have a ton of opportunity here that you are missing out on. By placing your listing in a preferred vendor spot you will ensure that our members see your excellent
