

A Long Way Gone

1. Noun
2. Verb - Past Participle
3. Verb - Past Participle
4. Verb - Past Participle
5. Verb
6. Noun
7. Proper Noun
8. Proper Noun - Plural
9. Noun

A Long Way Gone

Ishmael was a child _____^{Noun} for the Sierra Leone Armed Forces. His parents, brothers, grandmother, and aunt were _____^{Verb - Past Participle} by the Revolutionary United Front, or RUF. After being _____^{Verb - Past Participle} by UNICEF and rehabilitated, he went to live with his Uncle Tommy. While there, he was _____^{Verb - Past Participle} to travel to the United States to _____^{Verb} at a United Nations event about _____^{Noun} soldiers. Returning to Freetown after his speaking event, he eventually made his way back to the _____^{Proper Noun} _____^{Proper Noun - Plural}. After a time, he was able to forgive himself and love once again.

He has a special passion for _____^{Noun} music and his brother is named Junior.