In the beginning

God created the Noun and the earth. At first, the earth was completely Adjective. I here was nothing on the earth. Noun covered the Noun, and God's Spirit Verb - Past Tense over the water.
He saw the, and he knew that it was good. Then he separated the light from the darkness. God named the light "," and he named the darkness "" There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the first Then God said, "Let there be a Noun to separate the water into two parts!" So God made the space and separated the water. Some of the water was above it, and some of the water was below it. God named that space "sky." There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the second day. Then said, "Let the water under the Noun be gathered together so that the dry Noun will appear." And it happened. God named the dry land "earth," and he named the water that was gathered together "seas." And God saw that this was trees. The fruit trees will make fruit with seeds in it. And each plant will make its own kind of Let these plants grow on the earth." And it happened. The earth grew grass and plants that made grain. And it grew trees that made fruit with seeds in it. Every plant made its own kind of seeds. And God saw that this was good. There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the third day. Then God said, "Let there be Noun - Plural in the sky. These lights will separate the days from the nights. They will be used for signs to when special meetings begin and to show the days and years. They will be in the sky to shine light on the earth."

And it happened. So God made the two large He made the larger light to rule during the day and the smaller light to rule during the night. He also made the stars. God put these lights in the sky to shine on the earth. He put them in the sky to rule over the and over the night. They separated the light from the darkness. And God saw that this was good. There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the fourth day. Then God said, "Let the water be filled with many Noun Noun Noun Noun , and let there be birds to in the over the earth." So God created the large Noun animals. He created all the many living things in the sea and every kind of bird that flies in the air. And God saw that this was good. God blessed all the living things in the sea and told them to many babies and fill the seas. And he blessed the birds on land and told them to have many more babies. There was evening, and then there was morning. This was the fifth day. Then God said, "Let the earth produce many kinds of living things. Let there be many different kinds of Let there be large animals and small crawling animals of every kind. And let all these animals verb - Non 3rd Person Singular Present more animals." And all these happened. So God made every kind of He made the wild animals, the tame animals, and all the small crawling things. And God saw that this was good. Then God said, "Now let's make humans who will be like us. They will over all the fish in the sea and the birds in the air.
They will rule over all the large animals and all the little things that on the earth." So God created humans in his own image. He created them to be like himself. He created them male and female. God blessed them and said to them, "Have many children. Fill the earth and take control of it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the air. Rule over every living thing that moves on the earth." God said, "I am giving you all the grain bearing plants and all the fruit trees. These trees make with seeds in it. This grain and fruit will be your food. And I am giving all the green plants to the animals. These green plants will be their food.

Every animal on earth, every bird in the air, and all the little things that crawl on the earth will eat that " And all these things happened. God looked at everything he had made. And he saw that Noun was very Adjective. There was Noun, and then there was morning. This was the sixth day. (?Genesis? ?1?:?1-2, 4-31? ERV)
