Orange Park High School of Horror!

Three years after the disappearances, you and a friend decide to spend the night in the media center office on a dare. Soon after you set up, you notice that things aren't where you left them, and you begin to hear strange noises... You step into the Adjective hall with your friend to discuss it when the door Verb - Present ends in S behind you and locks all of your things in. After Verb - Present ends in ING, you decide to get out ASAP. You walk down the Adjective halls towards the main office to find a skeleton key. After obtaining the key, you wander again through the Adjective corridors to the room, gather your things, and Verb - Base Form to the exit. On your way through the front doors, you hear an Adjective sound that almost reminds you of laughter.
