MORGAN'S CURSE by shel silverstien

Followin' the trail on the _____ Verb - Base Form _____ treasure _____ Noun _____,

I came to the spot that said, " _____ Adjective _____ right _____ Coordinating conjunction _____."

And _____ Number _____ feet down my spade struck wood

Just where the _____ same as the first noun _____ said a chest would appear.

But carved in the side were written these words:

"A curse upon he who _____ Verb - Present ends in S _____ this gold."

Signed, _____ First Name of a Person _____ the _____ Noun _____, Scourge of the Seas.

I read these words and my blood ran cold.

So here I set upon untold _____ Noun _____

Tryin' to figure which is worse:

How much do I need this gold?

And how much do I need this curse?
