Perfect Day to Get Married! (Part One)

Even though it was my wedding day, I did not want to get out of bed to go to my 8 a.m. Noun appointment. Luckily, my sister was willing and able to spend the day with me, so we headed out in the Noun. After my hair was done, the next task was makeup. Since I have never really worn any and am fairly clueless past mascara, we went to Neiman Marcus in downtown Dallas. By the time we got home it was noon. Thank goodness it had stopped Verb - Present Tense!

We were supposed to be at the wedding venue around two o'clock. I Verb - Past Tense lunch at

Restaurant Bakery and found my Noun of everything I needed to remember: Noun,

Noun - Plural (in the Noun), Noun - Plural, Noun license, Noun,

Adjective shoes (and Noun shoes in case it's super Adjective), jewelry and Noun spray.

When we got to the Ranch at Lonesome in Southlake, the water from the had risen even higher than the day before. My last hopes of having an Adjective wedding were quickly dashed, but it was still such a

Adjective Noun. Everything seemed Adjective. The photographer had arrived an hour early, the officiant was there before we were, and the air conditioning was on!

Three o'clock was the Noun time, and it was Verb - Present Tense approaching. Everyone got into place, I got , and the music started Verb - Present Tense.
