

The Bad Rebel Sperm

1. Proper Noun
2. Proper Noun
3. Adverb
4. Adjective
5. Adverb
6. Adverb
7. Noun - Plural
8. Proper Noun
9. Feeling
10. Proper Noun
11. Same Proper Noun
12. Feeling
13. Proper Noun
14. Proper Noun
15. Same Proper Noun
16. Feeling
17. Virus
18. Feeling
19. Feeling

The Bad Rebel Sperm

One day there was a little sperm named _____ Proper Noun swimming happily around in the testicles. His friend _____ Proper Noun told him that it was time to swim up to the epididymis. So both of them _____ Adverb swam to the epididymis. The epididymis was very _____ Adjective and _____ Adverb. They then left the epididymis and went through the vas deferens. Once they were in the vas deferens they carefully went to the seminal vesicle. Then they _____ Adverb took a visit to the prostate gland and saw lots of _____ Noun - Plural. Then their journey was almost over and they left through the urethra. They went in to the female's body racing to find an egg. When _____ Proper Noun found an egg he was very _____ Feeling. He realized that he would not be able to swim faster than _____ Proper Noun. He yelled to _____ Same Proper Noun saying, "I don't want to be a _____ Feeling so if you could wait and go slower, I'll still let you fertilize the egg". She agreed and they shook tails. When they reached the egg, _____ Proper Noun said goodbye to _____ Proper Noun. _____ Same Proper Noun, however, sped up and got to the egg first and fertilized it. He didn't feel _____ Feeling at all. What he didn't realize was that he was a bad sperm. He carried the _____ Virus Virus. When he found out he was _____ Feeling. He was so _____ Feeling to be able to infect more eggs. This made his journey worth while.