Taking the Big Leap

One Adjective day a young House Finch was perched a Type of Tree branch. He exclaimed, "Exclamation! I wish I could fly." Just then a House Sparrow Adverb landed next to him. He said, "Before I fly I like to eat Favorite Food. Then I think about Happy Thought. So the House Finch ate Favorite Food and thought about Happy Thought. But still he did not fly. Just as the House Sparrow left, a Stellar's Jay took his place. The Jay said, "When I get ready to fly, I like to sing Name of Song really Adjective. Then I like to shake my Name of Muscle." So the House Finch sang Name of Song really Adjective and shook his Name of Muscle. But he did not fly. A Red Winged Black Bird knocked the Jay off of the branch and exclaimed, "Exclamation! That's not how you fly! First you have to stretch your Name of Muscle then you run in place like a Animal." So the House Finch stretched his Name of Muscle and then ran like a Animal. But he did not fly. "Why are you listening to those amateurs?" exclaimed a Bald Eagle. "Have you tried moving your wings?" The House Finch Adjective shook his head. So the Bald Eagle showed the House Finch how to flap his wings Adjective. And then they took Adjective leap off of the branch and flew to Vacation Destination.
