A Day at The Edge

At 10:00am _____<sup>Noun</sup> class started. Ikkan was ready to learn about _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup>, but Haruka wanted to learn about _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup>. Ikkan said he was interested in the solar system's orbit and the moon and Mitchell agreed. However, Haruka said that simple machines were much more _____<sup>Adjective</sup> and Melvin agreed. They had to settle the disagreement somehow. They decided to play a game of _____<sup>Adjective</sup> trivia. The winner would get to choose what they would learn about.

First, they were asked about _____<sup>Noun</sup>. Then, they were asked about states of _____<sup>Noun</sup>. Ikkan thought he knew them all, but he forgot about _____<sup>Noun</sup>! When a question about balancing equations came up, Haruka eagerly raised her _____<sup>Body Part</sup> and got the point! However, Mitchell got all the questions about _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup> right. Then, Melvin answered all the questions about the weather. It was a _____<sup>Adjective</sup> battle.

At the end of the day, it ended in a tie! They decided to learn about both the _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup> and _____<sup>Noun - Plural</sup>. This way, they would learn what they wanted to know and learn more!
