Dinosaur at Dark

While walking in the woods close to their home in Frog Creek, Pennsylvania, siblings Jack and Annie come across a mysterious tree house filled with Noun. When Jack opens a book on Noun - Plural and wishes that he could see a pteranodon for real, the tree house Verb - Present ends in S them back to the time of the dinosaurs.

The two discover a Noun and Annie lovingly names it "Proper Noun" -- as well as a triceratops and a colony of anatosauruses. Jack also discovers a strange Noun with the letter "M" engraved on it lying on the ground.
