

Ask the Bird, a poem (focus on nouns and questions)

1. Noun _____
2. Noun _____
3. Verb _____
4. Verb _____
5. Noun _____
6. Verb _____
7. Noun _____
8. Noun _____
9. Verb _____
10. Noun _____
11. Noun _____
12. Noun _____

Ask the Bird, a poem (focus on nouns and questions)

My bird, my birdy birdy, can you sing me a _____ Noun _____?

My human, my old and only human, I can sing you that.

Pretty bird, can you fly me a _____ Noun _____?

Man, my human, I can _____ Verb _____ you that.

Oh, baby bird, can you _____ Verb _____ me a morning _____ Noun _____?

Yes, humongous human, I can bring you that.

Then sweet, sweet bird, can you _____ Verb _____ to me the _____ Noun _____?

Of course, I can point to you that.

So then, my lovely bird, can you tell me your _____ Noun _____?

Certainly, my kind little keeper, I can _____ Verb _____ you that.

And your _____ Noun _____?

I can.

But first, my bird of _____ Noun _____, can you ask me for mine?

But second, my dear _____ Noun _____, can I really ask you that?