

Bullis Summer Booster Camp

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Noun
4. Animal
5. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
6. Verb - Base Form
7. Noun
8. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
9. Adverb
10. Noun
11. Adjective - Ends In Est

Bullis Summer Booster Camp

Once upon a time, there was a _____ Adjective group of students who were attending the Bullis Summer Booster Camp! The students were having such a great time at camp- they loved the activities, the teachers, the counselors, and especially all the _____ Adjective food. One day, the children were enjoying a _____ Noun when suddenly a unicorn flew down from the blue sky above. The unicorn looked like a normal _____ Animal, but with wings! The children were in shock when the unicorn landed in the middle of the snack area and started _____ Verb - Present ends in ING away on the carrots that the group was eating for snack. One brave student decided to _____ Verb - Base Form over and try to pet the unicorn. When the student carefully touched the fur of the magical animal, a puff of _____ Noun rose from the animal's body! The unicorn made a silly noise and turned to look at the student. _____ Verb - Present ends in ING the carrot in its mouth, the unicorn used its BODYPART to motion for the student to hop on. The camper was so excited and jumped on the unicorn's back, riding it like a regular horse. All the other campers' jaws _____ Adverb dropped as the lucky camper rode off into the sky on the unicorn, holding onto its _____ Noun to steer and not fall off. Once they were out of sight, the camp started buzzing with talk about how this was the _____ Adjective - Ends in EST and best summer camp ever!