A match made in couch surfing

Some people say that Couchsurfing is only for people that want to _____, but here is a _____ story that will make you think otherwise. Ale was a very _____ Argentinian man that was _____ and _____. He was travelling around and experiencing the _____ of the world. Bine was a _____ German chick that could _____ all night and _____ every day while she studied in Hamburg to become a _____. Ale's travels brought him to the _____ city of Hamburg, and his wallet brought him to the Couchsurfing website for a free place to stay. One look at Bine's _____ profile and Ale thought to himself, "Now that's a Couch that I wouldn't mind surfing!". After staying one _____ night, he thought that he might ask this _____ German chick out on a date. But Ale was very _____. He realized that she could say no to a date, but she couldn't say no to another _____ night of couchsurfing. So Ale went on to set the record for the most times ever couchsurfed at one place. His _____ plan worked. Eventually, Bine said to herself, "Well he's been here so many times, it's almost like he lives here. I guess we might as well become a couple." By then, they had both become _____. So, you see, Couchsurfing isn't just for people that want to _____. It has helped two wonderful people come together to share a beautiful life together.
