

Carol Wilder - A Very Special Lady

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Noun
4. Adjective
5. Noun
6. Adjective
7. Noun
8. Noun
9. Noun - Plural
10. Verb - Base Form
11. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
12. Occupation Ending In Er
13. Verb - Past Tense
14. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
15. Number
16. Part Of Body
17. Year
18. Verb - Past Tense
19. Animal
20. Location
21. Adjective
22. Proper Noun - Plural
23. Noun

- 24. Noun
- 25. Adjective
- 26. Part Of Body
- 27. Adjective
- 28. Number

Carol Wilder - A Very Special Lady

Once upon a Noun , in the Adjective year 1944, in the little Noun of Providence, RI, a Adjective little Noun was born, named Carol Flori. This Italian beauty was graced with Adjective hair, dark Noun , and a caring and passionate spirit. Her childhood held many ups and downs, but the Lord had special plans for her. She married a Noun and had two Noun - Plural named David and Fred. They were the joy of her life and Carol worked hard to Verb - Base Form well for them. Some of her jobs included working in a jewelry factory and Verb - Present ends in ING tables in a restaurant. And boy, could she dance! She worked as an Arthur Murray dance Occupation ending in er for a time and if her situation had been different, she might have had offers to Verb - Past Tense with Fred Astaire! After moving to Ohio, she worked in a bank and was very involved at her church. Carol loved serving and helping others, Verb - Present ends in ING the little children in Sunday School or Awana Clubs, and even volunteering to lead Bible studies for women in the jails. In fact, one could say she "met her Number husband in prison!" Bill Wilder met Carol and immediately fell head over Part of Body in love with her. While it took Carol a little time to open to the idea of marrying again, she finally gave in and was married on January 6, Year . In fact, it was her son David who Verb - Past Tense at their wedding, getting to pronounce Bill and Carol, " Animal and Wife!" Carol and Bill were a dynamic ministry team, serving in the jails and prisons of Ohio, caring for their Sunday School class, and opening their Location in gracious hospitality. After serving together in Ohio for several years, the Lord moved them to Ormond Beach, FL, where Bill could be nearer to the ocean and they both could be closer to their Adjective grandchildren--Owen,

Ethan and Aria. Her grandkids adore her, and she showers them with hugs and _____ Proper Noun - Plural whenever she sees them. They know how much their Nona loves them and feel her support at their soccer games

, performances and holiday times. Only a short time after their arrival in Florida, they acquired an interesting pet--a scraggly _____ Noun, named Toto. Carol often says that Toto looks like "an unmade _____ Noun" but she finds the little beast _____ Adjective. And Toto must have some sense about how special Carol is, because he never leaves her _____ Part of Body! We love this _____ Adjective lady, Carol Wilder, and are so glad to have her near us, especially on her _____ Number st birthday!