Face Party

Your body can have a party. Just imagine it.

Your arms can hug your Body Part - Plural, which can shrug them off and then hug your Body Part - Plural.

Your hands can clap and so can your Body Part - Plural, which can also dance,

and even fly with your Body Part - Plural, if they were big enough.

Don't forget your Body Part - Singular, which can roll around like your Body Part - Plural when up in the air.

But the best part of the party would be your face.

Just look at it.

Your Body Part - Singular can make music and so can your Body Part - Singular, while your Body Part - Plural go left and right and across and crossed.

And your Body Part - Plural, they can do the wave, while your Body Part - Singular reflects the moon and your Body Part - Singular cleans up all the food your Body Part - Plural were eying the whole time.

Oh, and your Body Part - Plural, they'll be everyone's friends.
