This will help you plan out your yearly plans for your booking using ppvgen.

Your face of the company is _____Top Face_____. He will sell all the merchandise, win championships, and Be the top Babyface.

Your backup face of the company will be _____Second Top Face_____. He will backup _____Top Face_____ as the face. He will be second or third in merch and be there if _____Top Face_____ is hurt or needs a break from the spotlight. He' s like The Rock to Steve Austin in 2000.

Your Big Heel is _____Top Heel_____. Expect a title run from him. He will be the only capable guy to beat other big faces regularly.

Your backup heel is _____Second Top Heel_____. Similar to _____Second Top Face_____ role to _____Top Face_____.

These guys will be the ones that MAY get a reign depending on overness. They can be in main events on PPV's with the big guys like _____Top Face_____, _____Second Top Face_____, and _____Top Heel_____. They may even win and boost into stardom, but are here mainly for putting on good matches with top dogs. They are:

Supporting ME Face

- Supporting ME Heel

- Supporting ME Face

- and Supporting ME Heel

Up next are your rising stars. There are 2 of these. They have potential to be world champions, but don't have momentum or popularity YET. They could bust, they could breakout. Who knows? They are:

- Rising Heel

- and Rising Face

Now let's talk about some of your Upper Midcarders/Midcarders These guys are guys that can wrestle, but don't quite have the charisma or charm to breakout yet/ever. Or it may be vice versa. They're here for midcard titles and MAYBE a world title shot. They are:

- Supporting UM Heel

- Supporting UM Face

- UpperMid-Mid

- UpperMid-Mid Face

and _____UpperMid-Mid Heel_____

Now let's talk TAG TEAMS!

- _____TagTeamOne_____ and _____TagTeamOneII_____: A Tag Team verging on singles success for _____TagTeamOne_____. _____TagTeamOneII_____ needs help getting known, so we put him with a wrestler without and identity yet. Get them both over somehow.

- _____TagTeamChamps_____ and _____TagTeamChampsII_____: Tag Champs. _____TagTeamChamps_____ favored more than _____TagTeamChampsII_____. Great chemistry and getting over as a team with the belts.

- _____TagTeamTwo_____ and _____TagTeamTwoII_____: Two guys gaining steam while getting there footing. Both trying to get over.

- _____TagTeamThree_____ and _____TagTeamThreeII_____: Two guys who need to develop as a team and with overness. A case of putting two guys together as a team to get them over faster.

- _____TagTeamFour_____ and _____TagTeamFourII_____: Tag Team Filler. Big things not planned for either. Not much PPV time.

- _____TagTeamFive_____ and _____TagTeamFiveII_____: Not over and no one cares about them. It's why they're teamed up. People might care about them as a team.

- _____TagTeamSix_____ and _____TagTeamSixII_____: Same as above.

Back to singles guys.

The following are guys that maybe one or two out of the pot will make it past this. Guys without a purpose. Midcard Purgatory sucks! You better hope you get a lucky break and get wildly popular. The following are midcarders hoping to put on good matches to impress:
