

More stories at WordBlanks.com

Crickets the Musical

Crickets the Musical

While walking down the streets of Location, body part in hand, First Name of a Person decided he/she/it was tired and needed to Verb - Base Form. While he/she/it was Verb - Present ends in ING, they saw something Adjective. A flying Noun was coming straight for them at speeds of number miles per millennium. First Name of a Person decided to run straight direction away from the flying Noun. As the flying Noun got closer, First Name of a Person grew body part and became to Verb - Base Form in circles. This caused a dust storm and the flying Noun out of control and landed number miles per millennium away. number crickets crawled out from under First Name of a Person and created the rhythm to Song title . This rhythm made every bug in the vicinity dance the type of dance. While everyone was dancing, First Name of a Person slowly ate all the crickets to stop the music and dancing. When the music had finally stopped, all the dancing Noun - Plural became enraged by the lack of music and danced on top of First Name of a Person. First Name of a Person was so displeased with the dancing that they walked back down the streets of Location , body part still in hand. First Name of a Person never again walked the streets of Location , but they always Verb - Past Tense in circles, hoping to have the chance once again to eat the music making crickets.