Up, up! The right time is here- Martin Opitz

Up, up! The right time is here, the hour waits at the door, brothers, let us grow up, Don't forget the world and its things.

Defeats the sleep and comes in Evil, because our light and grace of salvation, the right comfort and protection of his family, is closer than my wits itself.

The Adjective night has accomplished its fast run, the very desired day is coming and has taken away the night.

Puts her well from the dark bill, the works to be ephemeral, attracts bright light weapons, let sleeping nothing but sin.

Go on the road to respectability, thinks it's the day time, let wild Suffering and seizure, by God and we forget.

Deletes from the body vile lust are enemy of false love Favor also loveth not anger, hatred and quarreling, renounced the envious thoughts.

Taking Jesus Christ, the Lord, to, his life was always on your way, supplies the body which, on the ground and let him indeed too cool not going.
