My Grandad

He met my relative name when they were number period of time eg years old and eventually Adverb got married at Location in their Location. My grandma thought he was the most Adjective man she had ever Verb - Past Tense, she loved the way he would Verb - Base Form to Proper Noun all night. When he got sick Number period of time eg years ago he Adverb passed away while Verb - Present ends in ING. I will never forget how over the period of time eg years he Verb - Past Tense Preposition us all, even my older relative First Name of a Person. I remember when he first taught me how to Verb - Base Form a transportation, he Verb - Past Tense me till I got it right or wrong. Or when he Verb - Past Tense me on in every school performance of entertainment. He would Verb - Base Form the Adjective - Ends in EST in the audience, shouting " exclamation !" He used to take my relative and I for Noun - Plural Preposition Location too. I was only Number at the time and First Name of a Person was Number. so we could Verb - Base Form with the Noun - Plural.

At Event he would Verb - Base Form us all Number presents each, mine was always a mix of Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural. My relative First Name of a Person was Verb - Past Tense sometimes that he spent so much money on us, but we always had fun. I remember the last time we saw him, we all Verb - Past Tense at his Location, and he was Verb - Present ends in ING in his favourite Noun and asked us " exclamation " so he could tell us a Adjective story from his life. He told us about the time he and grandma were Verb - Present ends in ING in the Location when Adjective Animal (plural) suddenly Verb - Past Tense Preposition them in a herd and they Verb - Past Tense and Adverb Verb - Past Tense over! My mum was Verb - Present ends in ING so Adverb at this story, my dad had to Verb - Base Form her Preposition on a Noun so she could Verb - Base Form.

I will always remember him Adverb, as he was the Adjective - Ends in EST grandpa in the world! I hope to keep some of his prized possessions like Noun - Plural, Noun - Plural and even his Number Noun - Plural.
