First Day at University

To this _____ I can still remember my first _____ on campus at the University of _____ . I barely _____ the night before in anticipation of the new _____ I was about to start...and _____ to _____ out from _____ the parental units. Pops and I got up _____ to pick up the U-Haul trailer we rented to _____ my stuff. It didn't seem like much but included _____, dorm _____, word processor, 10-speed _____ and a shiny _____ inch TV. That took up about half of the _____ trailer; the rest was at least _____ medium size moving boxes filled with _____, _____, toilet _____, _____, etc. My mother wanted me to be _____ so she spent the summer _____ supplies at every sale she could find. I might not pass _____ 301 but I can assure you at no time did I " _____ " during a lecture.

After a short _____ hour drive to _____ we arrived at Jester Center, which was my new home for the next _____ . As they say, everything is _____ in _____ which included my dorm that had its own zip code. At the time Jester was the largest dorm in the _____ with _____ towers, a _____ story cafeteria, post office; lecture halls, bowling alley and slept _____ students. As we _____ up to the building, I was already _____ by the size of the place and for the first time _____ entered my mind. This went away _____
