A Day in the Development Resources Department

One Day, when I got to work, I saw _____ Name of Team Member and thought "Yippee, it's going to be a _____ Adjective!" The first thing I did was turn on my computer. I had an email in my inbox from _____ announcing a department _____-fest. How can I x_____ make that happen today, I wondered? Later, _____-ed over to my desk just to say what a _____ job I did on my last _____.

At lunch time, I walked outside and was immediately confronted with a _____ scene. Before my eyes was _____ with a _____. He/She shouted "Quick! Send me a _____." As I _____ jumped to retrieve it, I thought _____, that is really _____! Once this situation was under control, I sat down to eat my _____. It was extra _____.

After lunch, I was feeling _____ because my boss was a _____. Luckily, I had a webinar about _____ to distract me. _____ led the call, and it only lasted _____ hours. Afterward, I felt _____ about working for the Development Resources team!
