

An Icy Adventure

1. Preposition
2. Conjunction
3. Pronoun
4. Preposition
5. Pronoun
6. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
7. Adjective
8. Adverb
9. Adverb
10. Noun
11. Interjection
12. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
13. Interjection
14. Conjunction
15. Adjective
16. Noun

An Icy Adventure

One day during winter, Anna went _____ Preposition to her friend Layla's house. Anna's mom stayed and talked to Layla's mom for a little bit, while Anna's little brother Tyler walked down to the frozen creek with Anna _____ Conjunction Layla. Layla's sister and _____ Pronoun friend were already _____ Preposition the creek, and _____ Pronoun showed them where the ice was the thinnest. Since Tyler was only five, he stayed on the banks because he was scared that the ice would break. Then, after Anna and Layla had been having lots of fun _____ Verb - Present ends in ING around, Layla discovered a _____ Adjective hole that was _____ Adverb getting bigger. Anna, who doesn't have _____ Adverb much common sense, went on to the thin part of the ice to try to reach a _____ Noun that would plug the hole. _____ interjection! Layla said, "I think that's a little too far."

The next second, the ice cracked, _____ Verb - Present ends in ING Anna down with it. She was laughing and screaming at the same time because every time she tried to get up, she just slipped backwards, cracking more ice! _____ interjection! Layla tried to help her out, _____ Conjunction Tyler stood on the side laughing at them.

Finally, after getting pretty soaked herself, Layla managed to pull Anna out. The _____ Adjective of them walked back to Layla's _____ Noun soaked and shivering. Well, except for Tyler. He was still all warm and bundled up.