

The Lemon Tree

1. Verb - Base Form
2. Noun
3. Adjective
4. Conjunction
5. Verb - Base Form
6. Pronoun
7. Adjective
8. Adverb
9. Noun
10. Adjective
11. Noun
12. Conjunction
13. Preposition
14. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
15. Interjection
16. Pronoun
17. Interjection
18. Noun
19. Preposition

The Lemon Tree

There is a little girl who lives on Elm street. On Shady lane lives a little boy. They were both eight years old.

They met that summer under the lemon tree. The tree had Verb - Base Form there 13 years. The lemons were half green, half yellow as they were ripening. She was laying under the tree, looking up. She had a Noun in her hands and a Adjective box next to her. The boy walked up to the girl and sat next to her Conjunction yet, She had kept staring. The boy stared too. After a few minutes the boy turned to the girl.

"Why are we staring?" he Verb - Base Form.

"I'm staring because I must capture the beauty. That is why I am staring. But, I am staring to draw. Why are you staring? And what are you staring at?"

The boy just smiled. Pronoun looked up. After a moment the girl slowly did the same. After a few seconds of Adjective silence, the boy quietly says " Me too."

"Excuse me?" the girl said quietly with a Adverb gentle Noun. She stared at the boy for a Adjective moments, waiting patiently for his answer.

" I was trying to capture beauty as well." he replied.

"But, you were not looking at the Noun. I had Conjunction seen the Preposition of your nose in the corner of my eye." The girl said with curiosity hinted in her voice.

The boy smiled. "That's because I was not Verb - Present ends in ING at the lemons. I was staring at a different beauty."

The

girl blushed and said " _____ interjection _____ that's very kind, but _____ Pronoun _____ not that pretty."

" _____ interjection _____. I was talking about the _____ Noun _____ standing _____ Preposition _____ you. I love how colorful he is. He looks like the lemon you had drawn."