Apology Letter

Dear First Name of a Person,

Please accept my Adjective - Ends in EST apologies for my mistake in regard to our abstract noun.

It was not my abstract noun to create such an Adjective and Adjective situation for us.

If there was any good that came out of this Adjective experience, it is that I have Verb - Past Tense and learned alternative approaches to these situations. I am so sorry for Verb - Present ends in ING you on the Part of Body. It was a Adjective reaction, and I should have Verb - Past Tense myself.

I was wearing my new Adjective clothing which I loved, and you didn't even Verb - Base

Form so I felt emotion and emotion. I had bought it with you, and thought it was a

Adjective day so I wanted you to Verb - Base Form me. I now know that was silly and I should have just Verb - Past Tense down Preposition you.

When you said "exclamation" I just lost it, and couldn't believe you had said that, so I Verb - Past Tense over to you and Verb - Past Tense your Part of Body. You had also Adverb

Verb - Base Form my Part of Body but I forgive you, because that's what group of people do.

I hope we can discuss this further, and Verb - Base Form Preposition our Noun - Plural together.

You can contact me or tomorrow at _____ Number pm we can meet for _____ food in _____ Location.

Please feel free to _____ Verb - Base Form me of your thoughts and concerns over this matter. You can reach me at _____ email address name @hotmail.com.

Sincerely,

_____ First Name of a Person
