Guidelines and Tips for Harvest Kids Teachers

1. If you take the time to prepare your lesson and any crafts or well in advance, this will go a long way towards making your class run 2. On Saturday night, be sure to check that your blue is is and ready to wear. And of course, when you get dressed Sunday morning, don't forget to put on your fashionable blue Same Article of Clothing .
3. Do your best to arrive in plenty of time to prepare your heart and your classroom and be ready to greet children and love them with God's love. Then, direct them to an age-appropriate welcome activity. Younger classes may use play dough or colouring, while older children might enjoy a crossword of the week's memory verse.
4. Be in your lesson presentation whenever possible. Students often enjoy a/an meaning of the lesson and practical application to their lives. If students get off on a rabbit trail such as whether or not Adam and Eve had a/an or whether Noah took a Mythical Creature on the ark, you may want to suggest, "We only have a limited amount of class time. Let's talk about that after class.
5. Try to keep in mind that we have to be careful about the activities we plan since we are using classrooms that belong to others in a rented facility. It probably goes without saying that no matter how well it ties in with your lesson, bringing your pet to class is just not

6. Sometimes teachers will serve a snack of or animal crackers mid-way through class.
7. Don't forget to return all back to their original position in the classroom.
8. No matter how well you plan some days in class will be But, as long as you have prayed for the children, shared God's Word with them and all the children are in one by the end of class, consider it a success.
