Scrubadub in the tub

It was time for me to have a bath. I went into the bathroom and took off my clothes, as my _____^{Noun} waited for me in the tub. I quickly gave my _____^{Noun - Plural} a kiss before entering the bathtub, and then I sat down in the tub. I had a fun time with my _____^{Noun}. He _____^{Verb - Past Tense} my _____^{Noun} and I _____^{Verb - Past Tense}, just like we always do. I grabbed the _____^{Noun} and _____^{Verb - Past Tense} it on the wall. It made a nice _____^{Noun} sound. I then dove into the water to search for _____^{Noun - Plural} and eat _____^{Noun - Plural}. Of course, I had to go through the portal in my tap (just for the fun) to enter the _____^{Proper Noun} Realm and find the King of Haggis. I had a great time with him and saw my friend, _____^{Proper Noun} dancing with his wiggly _____^{Noun - Plural}. And then I went back through the portal, finished up my bath, and left. Just another normal bath according to my life.
