Christmas Shopping

Christmas           Noun           is both           Adjective           and exhausting. I love shopping for gifts for the           Noun - Plural           I love. On the other hand,           Verb - Present Tense           the crowds is           Noun          ; finding parking doesn't help matters. As much as I love           Proper Noun           shopping, I really should have started shopping           Adverb - Comparative          .
