Where the Sidewalk Ends by Shel Silverstein

There is a Noun where the Noun ends

And before the street begins,

And there the grass grows Adjective and Adjective,

And there the sun Verb - Present ends in S crimson bright,

And there the moon-bird rests from his flight

To cool in the Adjective wind.

Let us Verb - Base Form this place where the smoke Verb - Present ends in S black

And the Adjective street Verb - Present ends in S and Verb - Present ends in S.

Past the pits where the asphalt flowers grow

We shall Verb - Base Form with a Repeat Last Verb - Base Form that is Adjective and Adjective,

And watch where the chalk-white arrows go

To the place where the Noun ends.

Yes we'll Verb - Base Form with a Repeat Last Verb - Base Form that is Adjective and Adjective,

And we'll go where the chalk-white arrows go,

For the Noun - Plural, they mark, and the Noun - Plural, they know

The place where the Noun ends.
