Swamp Day 1

Once upon a time, there was a young Familiar Tie who wanted to have Noun Plural Two. She decided to seek out a Adjective for a Noun One. She walked across the world and came upon a Adjective Familiar Name. She had heard many None One Plural took the form of Noun - Plural, and Verb - Past Tense that she wanted to have Noun Plural Two! The Familiar Name tilted its head and Verb - Past Tense again. For long hours she Verb - Past Tense to the owl, even going to far as offering it Noun - Plural. Night began to fall so she went home, believing she would be Verb - Past Tense. Off to the side, the real Noun One stood and Verb - Past Tense his Noun. The Familiar Name was just that. An Familiar Name. He did indeed give the Familiar Tie a Noun - That her Noun - Plural would not be as Adjective!
