Silly Night before Christmas

Twas the night before holiday, and all through the Noun, there was Noun, and paper, and somewhere, a mouse. Probably a Adjective mouse, since the Noun - Plural like to chase them, and I couldn't Verb - Base Form the scissors - I'd surely Verb - Past Tense them. It's hard to rhyme a madlib, but I'll continue the story. It's amazing and funny and probably gory. I mentioned a dead mouse that was somewhere around, either down in the basement or out on the ground.
